

Tuesday P.M. Report

By Minneapolis/St. Paul Business Journal | Published Tue, Apr 6 2010 3:15 pm

3M Co. finalizes A-One label purchase: 3M Co. said today that it had completed its purchase of Tokyo's A-One label company. Financial terms were not disclosed. Maplewood-based 3M announced the purchase of Japan's primary branded office and consumer label producer in February. Read full story

Four Minnesota hospitals ranked among nation's best: Four Minnesota hospitals, including Mayo Clinic's Rochester Methodist Hospital, St. Cloud Hospital, Buffalo Hospital and Woodwinds Health Campus, are among the best health-care facilities in the United States, according to a Thomson Reuters report. The "100 Top Hospitals: National Benchmarks" is an annual study released by Thomson Reuters, which rates leading hospitals. Read full story

RiverCentre and St. Paul make green strides: As part of an energy-saving campaign in St. Paul, the RiverCentre replaced all lighting in its parking ramp with energy-efficient fixtures. The project was supported by a $2.8 million federal grant awarded to the city from the Department of Energy last fall. Replacing all 900 fixtures in the ramp cost RiverCentre $126,006. Read full story ✓

Man admits embezzling $6 million from Haas TCM with fake Seagate orders: A Big Lake man in federal court today admitted stealing $6 million in an embezzlement scheme from a Seagate Technology chemical supplier, the Department of Justice said. An employee of West Chester, Penn.-based Haas TCM, Chad Wilfred Jurgens, 38, was a site manager who worked at Seagate's Bloomington location to manage chemical sales to the computer hard-drive manufacturer. Read full story