

St. Paul Parking Ramp Gets Green Upgrade

A St. Paul parking ramp is getting another green upgrade. The ramp at the River Centre is getting solar panels to help power the seven story parking structure.

Federal stimulus money is funding this 82-kilowatt solar panel installation.

The ramp already has several sustainability features in place including energy-efficient lighting and electric car charging stations.